WILSON RUSHES STRIKE MEDIATORS TO NEW YORK

Giant Russ Spy Hunt Is On

$1800 IS GONE
MAN SAYS HIS NAME FORGED
IN ESTATE

Chester Spencer, Cited By the Romer Heirs, Casts Looting
to Son Now Dead

Declaring that he never knew he was administrator of the estate of Christina E. Romer for five years that his name appeared on the records, Chester Spencer of Chicago today gave testimony that leaves but one possible interpretation. That interpretation is that the Romer estate's loss of $1800 was due to acts of Attorney Fred C. Spencer, son of Chester. Attorney Spencer died last October.

Chester Spencer testified this afternoon before Judge West that his name was forged to the various documents in the Romer estate.

In 1910, according to the records, Chester Spencer was appointed administrator. He took the oath of office, rendered accounts, made affidavits, and carried on the business of the settlement of the estate. At least, that is what the records indicate.

Out of the Romer case there grew a lawsuit three or four years ago that was taken to the supreme court. It involved title to valuable property at Anaheim that it was alleged was deeded through the estate in a manner to cheat the estate. Chester Spencer was alleged to have been one of the main actors in the case. Throughout that case, he declares he was ignorant that he was administrator.

Recently Malcolm Baxter, Jr., through Attorneys Head of Santa Ana and Axman of Los Angeles, as assignee of the heirs of Mrs. Romer, caused Chester Spencer to be cited as attorney before Judge West to show cause why he should not be made to render distribution of the estate, an account in which showed a residue of $1800.

With Attorney H. G. Ames as his attorney, Spencer replied that he was not the administrator, and never had been, that his name was forged to all the documents in the Romer estate proceedings. According to the documents, Attorney F. C. Spencer appeared as attorney for the administrator, and before Attorney Spencer the acknowledgements were made.

Attorneys Head and Axman are taking the view that Chester Spencer did know he was administrator. They take the view that while some of the signatures may have been forgeries, the ones having to do with his appointment and his giving of bonds are genuine, and for that reason Chester Spencer and his bondsmen must be held for the $1900.

During the administration since 1910 two bonds were given, one for $3000 as administrator being given by the American Surety Company, which company has an attorney in attendance at the hearing before Judge West today. Another bond of $200 has H. A. Dickel and L. Z. Kroeger as sureties.

This afternoon Chester Spencer testified that the first he knew of the Romer estate was last May when he got letters demanding another payment of a premium on his bond, and demanding settlement of the estate. He said he turned all of these letters over to his son Fred, who he said told him to tell all inquirers that he (Chester) had no-thing to do with the estate.

Carlson of Los Angeles and McCor-mac of Santa Ana are to be called as handwriting experts.

REBEL GOVERNMENT
GRANTS POLITICAL OFFENDERS AMNESTY

PETROGRAD, March 16.—A government based on universal suffrage and equal rights has succeeded and the Duma today announced that it will first restore complete order before holding general elections and giving the people a chance to name the form of government and officials. The new regime is rapidly gaining strength from all classes. Noblemen are pledging loyalty. The prices of foodstuffs are decreasing.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The Russian revolution may be immediately followed by stronger entente pressure on Greece, and perhaps the removal of King Constantine, according to official dispatches today. The dispatches also hint that the collapse of Turkey is imminent and that this may cause the complete removal of Turkey from Europe.

GIVE POLITICAL OFFENDERS AMNESTY

PETROGRAD, March 16.—Minister of Justice Kerensky of the new provisional government, today decided upon a general amnesty to all political offenders.

GRAND DUKE ADVISED CZAR TO QUIT

PETROGRAD, March 16.—Grand Duke Nicholas, commanding the army of the Caucasus, telegraphed President Redzianko of the duma today that in agreement with General Alexieff, Russian chief of staff of the army, he advised the czar to abdicate. Such action, he held, was the only possible step to save Russia, bring the war to a successful conclusion and avoid fateful circumstances.

BRITAIN WITHHOLDS WIRE, SAYS LAW

LONDON, March 16.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Bonar Law told the House of Commons today that the British government would require further information before it could forward a message to the new Russian government, assuring the provisional leaders of England's sympathy in their movement.

FATE OF CZAR'S MINISTERS MYSTERY

LONDON, March 16.—Up to noon the fate of individual members of the former imperial ministry in Russia had not been made clear in Petrograd advices. One dispatch declared that "the majority" of the ministers had been released, but that Minister of the Interior Protopopoff had been "detained." Earlier dispatches had reported his execution by the revolutionists.

CZARINA SAFE, IS PETROGRAD REPORT

LONDON, March 16.—The Czar is at Pskoff and the empress is at the imperial palace at Tsarskoe-Selo, according to the latest information received from Petrograd up to noon today.

HISTORY'S GREATEST SPY HUNT ON

PETROGRAD, March 15, via London, March 16.—Democracy controls Russia. Czar Nicholas has abdicated. The Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch will act as regent until the czarovich becomes of age. The empress is being detained; pro-German nobles of the old regime have been captured and a new ministry of the people has been appointed.

The greatest hunt for traitors and spies in history was on late tonight. The populace and the army joined in this systematic hunt for pro-German intrigues.

It was their brazen activities that were the prime cause of the downfall of the Czar and his absolutist government. Not even the highest nobles were exempt from his spy hunt.

General Sukhomlinoff, former minister of war, was one of those arrested tonight. He went to join a notable company of those whose words were law in other days. The populace and the fully sympathetic troops of the city brooked no opposition to their control.

Baron Stokelberg fired on a group of soldiers from his window. His house was promptly stormed. The baron was dragged out. He was carried to the side of the quay and summarily executed.

Aged Count Jailed

Count Fredericks, the aged minister of the imperial household and aide de camp to the Emperor, was discovered in hiding. His life was spared, but he was sent to prison to join other notables of the old regime. Meanwhile his house had been completely wrecked.

Countess Klein Michael, long suspected as a German spy, was discovered in hiding at the Chinese legation. Soldiers promptly took her into custody.

No more dramatic incident occurred in the last few days of rioting than that of the arrest of the former minister of war, General Sukhomlinoff. A group of soldiers and hastily-armed people seized him. The soldiers demanded his instant execution, recalling vivid stories of the former minister's duplicity and treasonable dealings with Germany. Deputy Kerensky of Saratoff, one of the Duma leaders in the revolt, and minister of justice in the provisional government, intervened. He appealed to the mob to spare the minister's life, declaring justice would be meted out to him. He declared Sukhomlinoff desired nothing better than immediate execution. The crowd wavered and Kerensky won the day. But then the soldiery demanded their former chief's degradation. Sukhomlinoff himself tore his epaulettes from his shoulders and handed them to soldiers of the group which guarded him. Tottering in his disgrace and overwhelmed with despair, he was taken away with difficulty, hardly being able to walk. He was imprisoned in Tauris Palace, where other notables were held.

20 SLAIN, 120 WOUNDED IN PETROGRAD CLASH

STOCKHOLM, Mar. 16.—Twenty were killed in Monday's fighting in the Petrograd revolution and 120 were wounded, according to information received today from the Russian capital by the newspaper Extrabladet.

"On Tuesday," the dispatch asserted, "the mob destroyed several great bakeries, whereupon the government opened additional shops. The railroad lines to Finland were blown up at several points."

"The Russian troops in Finland are confidently expected to support the new government. When Minister Golatkin and the old government ordered them to report to Petrograd a week ago to suppress riots in their incipency, these troops flatly refused to respond."

Slavs Bridge Centuries In Leap to Democracy

BY ED. L. KEEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Mar. 16.—Russia has stepped from archaic autocracy to ultra-modern democracy in three short days. The cost in blood has been almost insignificant, considering the immensity of the transition.

The joy of the allied nations was unbounded today. Russia's spectacular casting off of the old man of the sea, who undeniably had gravely imperiled the war's success, was hailed as an epochal event. But the feeling of satisfaction was even deeper when it was considered that Russia hereafter will be animated by the same ideals as her allies.

Russia's alliance heretofore was an incongruity.

It was impossible that there should be an effective alliance between the autocracy of Russia on the one hand and the democracy of France, of England and of all the other entente powers on the other. That alliance which hereafter be cemented by the powerful strength of complete democracy of all peoples concerned.

One feature of the revolt indicating the wide-spread nature of the movement and the complete popular dissatisfaction of the Russian people with the old regime was comparative smoothness and the minimum loss of life with which the nation made a leap over three centuries of despotism to declare control in three days.

The latest information available here today from various Russian sources was that the Duma, the army, the navy and the people were united against that element of Russia which even if it were not thoroughly pro-German was at least inefficient and corrupt.

The revolution had long been expected here.

LONDON, Mar. 16.—If the Irish party members continue their opposition to the Lloyd-George government, a general election will be forced and England's activity in the war will be paralyzed," Chancellor of the Exchequer Bonar Law said in the House of Commons today. He appealed eloquently to all Irish members to join in negotiations designed to effect a settlement of the Irish question.

MAY BAR U. S.
ARMED SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—America, it was learned today, has asked European nations if they will agree to admit armed American merchantmen. This followed the discovery that some nations are inclined to object. This government holds it has the right to send warships to a foreign harbor, while it is neutral. German influence may have caused the veiled objections abroad.

BUENOS AIRES, Mar. 16.—Cable communication to London via The Azores was suddenly cut off early today. Officials thought it might be due to an earthquake, but it was believed here the line had been cut by a German raider.

LATE WIRE NEWS

BOSTON, March 16.—A bomb in the lavatory of the Pemberton Square court house today exploded while the superior court was in session. Two persons, believed to be a man and boy, were blown to pieces. It is believed that the man who was killed was the one who had the bomb. He was dressed in a khaki suit. The damage to the building was not serious.

REVOLT TO UNITE PEOPLE,
SAYS NEW MINISTER

PETROGRAD, Mar. 16.—The re-establishment of a power capable of achieving a victory, as demonstrated by recent events, will increase the popular enthusiasm and multiply the national forces of the people's anger and their determination," declared Prof. Paul Milakoff, new minister of foreign affairs, today.

"Our revolution was the shortest and least bloody of any in history," he asserted.

15 NOBLES' ASSEMBLIES
BACK REVOLUTION

PETROGRAD, by wireless to London, Mar. 16.—Fifteen assemblies of the Russian nobility met today and adopted resolutions declaring their participation in the popular revolution-ary movement.

The resolutions vigorously assailed those officials of the old government responsible for the crisis which resulted in the overthrow of the Czar.

ASSASSINATIONS NOT YET CONFIRMED

STOCKTON, Mar. 16.—Assassination of former Premier Sturmer and Minister of the Interior Protopopoff by Russian revolutionists has not yet been officially confirmed, according to dispatches received from Petrograd today by the newspaper Politiken.

The advices say that Grand Duke Nicholas, whom the revolutionists trust, will probably be appointed provisional dictator of the army.

Executive To Take Drastic Steps In Case Parley Fails

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Secretary of the Interior Lane, Secretary of Labor Wilson, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and President Daniel Willard of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad were named by President Wilson to go to New York and immediately confer with the railway brotherhoods' and railway managers' representatives with a view to averting the strike.

All who were named by the President are members of the National Defense Council, which suggested the conference plan, which was later adopted by the cabinet.

It is believed that in case this effort to bring peace between the brotherhoods and railways fails, President Wilson is determined to take any action, however drastic, to prevent a tie-up of the nation's railway systems.

The mediators are now en route to New York and will hold a meeting with the brotherhoods and railroads tonight.

At the same time that the President dispatched the mediators to New York he sent a personal appeal to both sides, urging co-operation in the best interests of the country.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—President Wilson will act on a suggestion by the railway brotherhoods or managers that he mediate in the eight hour strike set for Saturday, if such suggestions reach him. This can be stated on the highest authority.

No such request, however, had reached the White House up to mid-forenoon.

In the event that all moves fail and that the strike does come, President Wilson will take occasion to inform the country as to where he believes the blame rests for the situation of perilous possibilities whereby the transportation systems of the country are tied up in the face of a great crisis.

There was even strong indication today that President Wilson might call both the railroad managers and brotherhood leaders into conference with him within twenty-four hours, without awaiting an invitation to mediate.

The President's understanding of the situation now is that both sides appear to be marking time pending some action on his part.

It is the belief of his advisers that the country as well as the railroads and their employees, now look to the President personally to avert the strike.

NEW YORK, Mar. 16.—Indications that President Wilson may be asked to mediate in the threatened railway strike scheduled to begin tomorrow evening developed today when the railroad managers hurriedly went into conference shortly after W. G. Lee, speaking as president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, suggested the step.

The brotherhood chiefs followed the example of the managers and also went into an informal conference.

Lee made his statement in talking with newspapermen and the quickness with which the railway managers went into conference, led to the belief that it was being favorably considered.

Representatives of the "big four" railroad brotherhoods have declared that unless the railways consent to their eight-hour day demands by 7 o'clock tomorrow evening the progressive strike designed to tie up the country's roads will be set in motion.

Nation Feels Effects

The nation already had begun to feel the effects of the order early today. Drastic embargoes were being placed on freight shipments. Food speculators were reported active.

Today's chief offices were besieged by persons seeking to return home before the tie-up is put into effect.

Effect of the strike on this city's food supply was a matter of grave speculation. In some quarters it was declared that five days at the most would see the city in near-famine conditions.

W. G. Lee, chairman of the trainmen's brotherhood, declared today that 95 per cent of the men called out Saturday night will strike.

"The railway managers cannot get it into their heads that this strike is real and apparently they will not believe it until they wake up Sunday morning and find their trains stopped," he said.

Not All to Strike

The railroads claim at least 25 per cent of their men will remain loyal, this group being composed of men who have long service behind them and are nearing the time when pensions would become operative.

President Daniel Willard of the Baltimore and Ohio, a member of the National Defense Council, who would sit with President Wilson's cabinet in case of war, is in Washington today. He left immediately after the break in negotiations and there was hope that the fact that he is a former engineer, a railway president, a semi-official adviser of President Wilson, would enable him to draw together the various threads of the controversy.

CHICAGO LAYS PLANS TO COMBAT STRIKE PERILS

CHICAGO, Mar. 16.—With a meeting of the freight traffic committee of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce called for noon today, city officials and heads of the various industrial lines of the city were considering ways of first bringing the necessities of life into the city, should a nation-wide rail strike be called and then of conserving those necessities and using them to the best advantage for the public.

Electric roads running into the city were preparing for the biggest business of their history, in their attempt to handle the 100,000 commuters now

Rail Traffic Between Santa Ana and L. A. Will Not Be Halted, View

"The West will not be affected by the strike if it comes tomorrow. In fact, I don't believe there will be any strike at all—politics and bluff are all there is to the threatened strike."

A local railroad man today thus expressed his opinion on the strike situation.

Be that as it may, agents at both the depots, Santa Fe and Southern Pacific, have received orders not to accept livestock or perishable goods for shipment and to take other shipments only subject to delay or loss by reason of the impending strike.

Ammunition and explosives will be refused except where consigned to the government.

It is not anticipated that there will be any interruption in train service between Los Angeles and Santa Ana or any points within the state.

RAIL STRIKE WOULD PUT
BALL PLAYERS IN FIX

BY H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Mar. 16.—Baseball, just recovering from a terrible struggle with Wave Fultz and his crowd of fraternizers, is in a fine fix today. Every major league baseball club the country contains is miles and miles from home—and the railroad men say they're going to stop running trains.

Thus, thrown right up to them, there is the prospect of no trains home for the axe victims and no trains north for those who stick. Also there is the prospect of the Middle West worrying along without having seen the Red Sox and the Dodgers stage a repetition of last autumn's world's series, although it is generally believed the Middle West would stand it without trouble.

GIVE S. P. LAND 'GIFT'

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 16.—Whether or not an injunction restraining the San Francisco Board of Supervisors from exchanging the city's property on Channel street for property on Van Ness avenue owned by the Southern Pacific company will be granted, is to be decided today by Judge Seawell. The city proposes to turn its property over to the Southern Pacific for the Van Ness avenue property and an additional consideration of $392,073.30.

W. M. Miller has sought an injunction against the transfer, maintaining that it amounts to a gift of $800,000 to the Southern Pacific. City Attorney Lull in an opinion has advised the supervisors that the transaction will stand the test of law.

ATHLETES AWAIT STARTING GUN FOR COUNTY TRACK MEET

Poly Oval Fast; Last Details For Big Conflict Are Being Made

Track athletes all over the county are tonight anxiously awaiting the crack of Starter Roy Haslett's pistol to open the Annual Orange County Track and Field Meet to be held here tomorrow afternoon. Everything is all set for the afternoon's exhibitions. The track will be gone over for the last time early tomorrow morning and all the minor details will likewise be arranged at that time. As it is right now, the Poly oval is faster than it has probably ever been. The light rains, at the first of the week, were just hard enough to put a spring into the ground that tends toward record time. All the latter part of the week has been spent in broadening the curves and raking over the track itself.

Poly rooters are jubilant tonight with the word that Trotter and Guiley will be eligible to compete in tomorrow's races. However, Nieblas will be on the side lines when the distance men are called to their marks.

On the night of the big affair, no one can dispute the assertion that Culp's Fullerton aggregation has a decided edge. In Johnson and "Goobar" Smith, the dusky flyer, the Oil Diggers have two athletes, single handedly, to annex some twenty-five digits. Then with Dean, Sullivan, Hale and all the others in shape it looks kind of dark for the other schools.

But Santa Ana has a good fighting chance and they fully intend to seize that opportunity. Neal Raney will probably compete in five events and is expected to table some twenty marks for Poly all by his lonesome. Much depends on ex-Captain Trago tomorrow. He has seen service in two other county meets; tomorrow is perhaps his last race as a high school runner. Trago has reported very regularly lately and many assert that he will not only take the broad jump but will also place in the sprints.

Arnold Towns, the big colored boy, has been displaying surprising form all week and is counted on to help Santa Ana's total. In the weight events he is Poly's only stand-by and much depends on his ability to come through tomorrow.

Trotter is hoped to win the pole and place in the high jump. His digits will come in mighty handy. Then there are others who may surprise the wise ones and come through with points. Among these are Hugh Osborn, Don Smith, "Shorty" Johnson, Berk Davis and L. Plavan. The biggest crowd that ever attended a county meet is expected at tomorrow's fray. All the other schools, Anaheim, Orange, Fullerton and Huntington Beach, will bring over large crowds but the local institution will likewise be out en masse. With a large crowd, competent officials, and stiff competition, tomorrow's big conflict is expected to be the most successful in the history of the county meets.

ADKINSON LOOMS WORLD BEATER IN SPRINTING SPORTS

Smashes Southern California 880 Yard Record at Claremont Meet Yesterday

Ray Adkinson, graduate of Santa Ana high school and now attending Pomona College, won additional honors at the Pomona-Berkeley track meet yesterday at Claremont, and lowered the Southern California record for the 880-yard dash. He covered the distance in 1 minute 56 1/5 seconds, lowering the record held by Beebe, also an Orange county boy, two-fifths of a second. Beebe is a resident of Anaheim. Adkinson was also first in the mile run, doing it in 4 minutes 33 seconds.

The University of California squad upset the dope sheets and captured the meet in a score of 80 1/2 to 50 1/2. Some of the Pomonans did the usual and made records better than they had ever made before. Green of Pomona grabbed third place in the hammer-throw, out-tossing the famous Liversedge. Widdess, the young Hercules of Pomona, heaved the discus 100 feet 3 inches, ten feet further than he ever threw it before. The performance of Adkinson threw the spectators into a frenzy and remarks from Christie, coach for the university, and Cromwell were to the effect that Adkinson was a world-beater.

MORE PRAISE IS GIVEN WAGNER

BY H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, March 16—So much has been written of Hans Wagner, his record, his habits, and his all-round sterling qualities, that it seems futile to add to the miles of columns that have been used in his favor. Wagner, however, is getting ready to enter his twenty-sixth season of baseball, and the marvel of it is, he is counted on to play the most important part in the hopes of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Wagner is a wonder. His remarkable ball playing isn't the only thing that holds him up to fondom on a pedestal few players have ever reached and none surpassed.

Wagner began to be a ball player before many men now in the game were born. It was in 1891 that he did his first work for the Mansfield, Pa., club. He branched from there to Ohio, finally getting his name into the records for the first time in 1895, when he played with Steubenville as an outfielder. He hung up a mark of .402 for forty-four games.

Wagner spent a couple of seasons in the Atlantic league, playing with Patterson, and then went to Louisville, which then boasted a club in the National league. He played three seasons in Louisville and then was taken with the club when it was transferred to Pittsburgh. He played first base, third base, and in the outfield for Louisville, hammering the ball each year for averages far ahead of .300, once attaining .379.

Wagner first dropped from the charmed circle of batsmen when he hit only .253 in 1914, just after he had barely stuck in the class by hitting an even .300.

Wagner is failing. He isn't the same old ball player at all. He isn't through because he will not admit it, and his smartness in the field and at bat makes him to be desired over younger players, who probably would cover more ground. He admitted a year ago it was becoming hard for him to see the ball, and this probably means he will be on the bench a great deal of the time this summer.

Indications are he will not be used in his old position of shortstop, but will take care of first base for Jimmy Callahan's entry.

SUGGESTION TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop" When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. You can get it just as Mrs. Maxwell did. She says:—

"I keep house for my little family of three, and became completely run-down. I was weak, nervous and could not sleep; finally I was unable to do my housework. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and improved rapidly. It toned up my system, I regained my strength, am no longer nervous, sleep well, and do all my housework." Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Montgomery, Ala.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous body-building and strength-creating tonics.

So many letters like the above are continually coming to our attention, that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails to give satisfaction.

FORCE OF CITY CARRIERS IS INCREASED TO TEN

R. B. Cook Assigned to Regular Work By Deputy Postmaster Alexander

Postoffice Inspector Ranger's recommendation that Santa Ana be given an additional city mail carrier became effective this morning when R. B. Cook was added to the regular carriers operating out of the local office.

Cook has been doing special duty in parcel post delivery work and has been putting in nearly full time at this. The increase gives Highland street west from Flower to Shelton a service residents have not heretofore enjoyed. This is the only territory added to the delivery district by reason of the addition to the force.

None of the routes have been changed, but the carriers will do more parcel post work than they have had to do heretofore. Cook will relieve the footmen of the larger and heavier packages.

The service on three of the routes will be better by the carriers being given permission to make their deliveries on wheels. W. J. Morrison, E. G. Glenn and Cook are the carriers who will be privileged to use bicycles. Their routes cover sparsely settled sections of the city and wheels can be used to advantage.

The force now numbers ten regular carriers.

The local postoffice will take another advance step on the first of July, when the position of superintendent of mails will be created. L. F. Harvey will probably fall heir to the new position.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

OVERSHINER IS VISITING OLD KENTUCKY

Postmaster Charles D. Overshiner has been spending the last week in his old home town, Hopkinsville, Ky. He left there last night for Little Rock, Ark., and after a three-day stay will go to New Orleans, thence home, expecting to reach Santa Ana on the 26th inst.

It has been some years since Overshiner visited his old home, and he finds many changes. Aside from relatives and old friends he knows no one, there having been a great change in the population. Hopkinsville is about the size of Santa Ana, but there is a difference of about $10,000 a year in postal receipts in favor of Santa Ana. The city has a splendid federal building, and in that respect is ahead of Santa Ana.

Overshiner has experienced some cold weather in Washington, D. C., where he attended the inauguration of President Wilson. He had a good seat within a hundred feet of the President and heard every word of the inaugural address.

SANTA ANAN IN MEXICO TELLS OF HER TRIP FROM BORDER

Absurd Ceremonial of Fumigation Gone Through By Inspectors For Gov't.

Miss Martha Warne of Santa Ana, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Warne of 1501 East Fifth street, Santa Ana, has returned to the American Hospital at Mexico City, which she left in 1914 after a year spent as a nurse at that institution. Miss Warne graduated from the St. Helena Sanitarium Training School for Nurses.

An interesting letter telling of her experiences in returning to Mexico City, where she arrived less than a month ago, has been received by a friend. The letter follows:

Mexico City, Mex., March 1. Well, I am in Mexico City again after an absence of three years and a nerve-racking trip back. I thought when I left here in 1914 that I learned something of the inconveniences of war-time travel in Mexico; but that journey fell far short of this one in real, honest-to-gracious thrills and features that made me wish to wish for the hot water, soap, clean towel, and real food comforts of home. Of course, all went well from San Francisco to San Antonio.

One can nearly always forecast the day's events when traveling in the United States, and this, while it does make for dullness at least carries a train of comforts and a feeling of security along with it.

Down here all one can be sure of is that each day will hold something altogether different from what one expects.

At the Border

We arrived in Laredo at 7:30 a. m., after a night ride from San Antonio; and when we alighted and looked around we decided that Canaan already lay behind. These small border towns are so quiet! This was the first experience of Miss Mott, a nurse who came with me from Los Angeles, with conditions Mexican or border, and I think that I had even suggested such a thing she would have straightway climbed back into that train for San Antonio. Yet once across the Rio Grande, or rather the Rio Grande, Miss Mott braced up and seemed rather to enjoy the experiences that made that trip memorable even among my own memorable journeys.

There was much confusion at Laredo. Everybody going across the river was dickered with caradores to take trunks and suit cases over to Nuevo Laredo on the other side. The Mexican train was to start at 10 a. m.

In the United States that would have meant that we had plenty of time; but in Mexico one can never be sure of anything except the uncertainty of everything. There is a story current in El Paso of a Mexican train that once pulled out from Juarez ahead of time and without warning and left fifty passengers in the waiting room.

We gave our trunk checks to a Mexican with a wagon and climbed into an automobile headed for the other side. I was managing our little party of two because I could talk Spanish and was more or less acquainted with the Mexican ways and customs.

On the way across the river I asked our driver the rate of exchange. He said it was 1 to 1.65. At first I could not believe my ears, and then concluded that the man was mistaken. Only a short time ago I had understood that it was somewhere about 1 to 20. As we passed the American guard at the middle of the bridge I made our driver stop while I asked a soldier what the exchange was. He replied

In it, you get the curative influence of the pine tar and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying and laxative action of honey.

Editor C. T. Miller, Cannelton, Ind. (Enquirer) writes: "I was troubled with bronchial affection and coughed constantly day and night. I took Foley's Honey and Tar and got relief. It is great for bronchial colds and coughs." La grippe and bronchial coughs, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, are all quickly relieved. Rowley Drug Co.

1 to 1.55! I was dumbfounded! Excess Baggage

Just at this point the expressman I had given our trunk checks to came panting up and reported that he could not get the trunks as they were held for excess baggage charges; would the señorita please give him $4.75 American currency to pay the charges?

Again I thought there must be some mistake. They were still on the S. P. line; why had not the agent in San Francisco collected this charge? Verily the ways of railroad officials, even in the United States, are sometimes as devious and hard to fathom as those of the "heathen Chinese," for that cargadore was right!

Having gotten our trunks out of limbo we exchanged perfectly good United States gold and paper for Mexican gold and silver at 1 to 1.65, and started once more.

A dozen letters would not tell our experiences just crossing the river. Of course I am used to having custom officers open my trunks and grips and dig into my things; but please explain this: every trunk and suitcase was taken to a fumigation station and a handful of things, whatever happened to be on top, were lifted out, laid on a sheet, and put through a fumigator. Why, in heaven's name! Everybody I asked "Quien sabe?"

May be to get even with the American authorities who are taking similar steps trying to keep typhus from coming across the border.

May be because the government needs the money as there was a fumigation charge of $1 for each trunk and fifty cents for each grip and suitcase. Out of my grip they took some linen fresh from the laundry, and from my trunk some pieces of embroidery tied together, and four spoolless clean uniform aprons; and they only looked inside the suitcases!

I could have laughed at the absurdity of the whole proceeding and at the earnest way that the solemn faced officials went through with it had it not been for the charge.

I had a desperate time rescuing a delicate pink evening dress belonging to Miss Mott from the grimy paw of a fumigator. In answer to his question she had foolishly told him that she had worn it once and he was determined that it must be put through the fumigator and be saturated with heaven knows what.

Reach the Station

After escaping from the talons of these people we rode over a very bumpy road to the station. Here we found the usual swarm of Mexican families, men, women, children, dogs, and baskets of food waiting for the train. Of course the minute our machine stopped we were surrounded by a crowd of cargadores. We picked out one, turned our grip over to him and shooed the rest away.

After buying our tickets to Mexico City we found we had mighty little over. We had left California with $150 each for traveling expenses, and this would have been ample if the exchange had been any where near what I expected.

We were the only American women on the train. After starting we found that there were two American men on board. With the usual camaraderie of Americans in Mexico they came around and introduced themselves and we were glad indeed to make their acquaintance. One was a Mexico City lawyer and the other a mining man.

Along the Road

We actually had a Pullman car! When I left Mexico three years ago there were no Pullman cars in the

TAKE 'CASCARETS' IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED

BEST FOR LIVER AND BOWELS, BAD BREATH, BAD COLDS, SOUR STOMACH

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.—Advertisement.

country. But there was no diner and we lived on what we could gather by the wayside at the stations. Also the porter brought us a few meals in a buffet; but everything was so dirty in the car, the porter included, that we preferred to get our meals outside. Incidentally, it quite often proved long between meals.

We were three days and nights on the way, very little progress being made at night. Once we stood stationary from 8 p. m. to 6:30 a. m. This was both because of the poor condition of the track and danger of Villistas after dark. But nothing happened to us more serious than running out of soap and clean towels and the many long spaces between meals.

When we arrived in Mexico City there was Miss Wilson, matron, and several of the girls and people from the hospital; and wasn't I glad to see them! Oh, it was good to come to the "end of the trail" and find such a welcome as we received! And then, of course, it was quite like coming home to me.

At the Hospital

When we reached the hospital and sat down to a really clean and actually square meal, not to speak of a certain grateful ceremonial performed first with delightfully clean towels, delicious soap, and vast quantities of hot water the very feeling of which did my soul good, I could have sung psalms for pure joy.

We encountered difficulties enough getting out of Mexico three years ago; but getting back into Mexico this time was a good deal harder. But I am glad I am here; and here I am going to stay, at least until the memories of some of our experiences coming in grow dim. I could write a whole volume on the trip; but many of the things I would like to say would not look well in writing.

MARTHA WARNE.

American Hospital, Mexico City. P. S.—I forgot to say that since opening our baggage here, for the first time since leaving the border, we find missing one pair of blue silk hose and one pair of black. Where are they? Quien sabe? Probably still at the border and before now decorating the nother extremities of friends of the fumigation officers, those fellows with the mournful countenances and the ridiculously solemn way of going through a perfectly absurd ceremony.

BLAGGE TODAY IN FULL CONTROL SITUATION AT SEAL BEACH

Two Trustees Resign and the Mayor Names Successors At Once

Mayor James H. Blagge today is in complete control of the situation at Seal Beach developed by efforts to force the passage of an ordinance permitting cafes to remain open until 2 o'clock in the morning.

The fight came to a head at the council meeting last night, and was won by Blagge. Two of the members resigned and Blagge at once named men in his own camp to succeed Jack Adams and R. D. Richards. He named Merrill L. Russell, rancher, and H. E. Metcalf, real estate dealer.

A petition for the recall of Blagge got by at the request of Blagge and the election was set for Friday, April 20.

Hisses and applause punctuated the meeting, and something was doing every minute. The mayor went after the instigators of the recall petition and handled them without gloves, and requested the council to set the recall election for the earliest date possible, declaring that he did not fear the outcome of such a move on the part of his enemies.

The original recall petition was dismissed and a new one filed immediately after. It is based upon the irregular adjournment of the last meeting of the board, precipitated by the mayor.

COMPULSORY CITY PLAN-NING

It is possible that city planning will become compulsory in the next few years. John Lawrence Mauran, of St. Louis, Mo., president of the American Institute of Architects, plans to take a bill before the next United States Congress which would make it compulsory for every city to have a city planning commission.

He points out that such planning has long since ceased to be a side-issue of the "city beautiful" idea. It has become an economic and commercial consideration that is of vital importance to the development of every city, and so of the nation as a whole.

Beautiful cities are good and desirable. But no city is truly beautiful if it stops at handsome buildings, buildings and streets, business section and residence section, transportation facilities, etc., should all be planned to make the whole life of the city fulfill its highest possibilities. It sounds like the dream of a more perfect civilization, but there's no reason why the dream shouldn't be realized some day.

OUR POET LAUREATE

Laguna Beach has long been famous as the Mecca of poets and painters. For artists of all kinds and degrees the beautiful Orange County beach resort seems to possess irresistible charm and to impart inspiration of infinite variety from an inexhaustible source.

The latest addition to the artists colony at Laguna is A. F. Clarke, for many years city editor of the Riverside Press. On account of a nervous breakdown Mr. Clarke was compelled to give up newspaper work—for a time, at least,—and he fled him to Laguna to write poetry and, incidentally, to engage in the bee business—a peculiarly appropriate business for a retired newspaper man, who, necessarily, has become immune to stings.

Well, here is Arthur's latest—or is it his first and latest?—tribute to Laguna:

JES' A LIL CABIN
Jes' a lil' cabin
That overlooks the sea;
Jes' a lil' cabin
That's built for you and me.

Jes' a lil' garden
That grows beside our door;
Jes' a lil' perfume
From heaven's golden shore.

Jes' a lil' partner
A standin' by m' side,
Jes' the same of partner
Who'll ever be m' bride.

Jes' a lil' foretaste
Of happiness divine;
Jes' a lil' earth joy,
A joy that's yours and mine.

A. F. C.

With or without apologies to the late and sorely lamented James Whitcomb Riley, we nominate Arthur Clarke for Poet Laureate of Orange County.

"MEXICO IRREDENTO"

The Chicago Tribune suggests sarcastically that, since Germany has sought an alliance with Mexico and promised that country her "lost provinces," we may expect to see an "irredentist policy" spring up in Mexico like that which animates Italy in her war against Austria.

Why not, indeed, a propaganda for "Mexico redeemed"? Why shouldn't Mexicans be summoned to arms to win back their "lost provinces" as the Italians hope to redeem Trieste and Trentino and the French hope to redeem Alsace and Lorraine?

Texas, Arizona and New Mexico may not have, to Mexicans, all the sentimental appeal that the European provinces have for their original owners; but it is true that they were once Mexican, and they are fair domains eminently worthy of conquest. And why stop with the three mentioned? Why not proceed to the "redemption of California, Nevada, Utah and the other territory within our borders that was once Mexican?"

To be sure, we merely admitted Texas into the Union after she had won her independence, and the other Mexican territory we either bought or had awarded us by impartial tribunals. But what of that? "Once Mexican, always Mexican!" It only remains to raise that battle cry, in the name of

WITH MALICE TOWARD NONE

By Henry James

The Shivering Girl
An American art collector has just bought The Shivering Girl, a bronze statue by Rodin, described as rare. A solitary piece may be reckoned rare regardless of intrinsic quality, but no matter about this.

The collector paid $170,000 for the bronze. Probably he had no thought of the shivering girl who has to sell herself for much less; but then, she isn't rare.

Of course in theory a man who has money may spend it as he pleases, although it is known that most collectors who pay extortionate prices know no more of art than a pig does of Greek. They collect with less intelligence than the squirrel that gathers nuts to hide in a hollow tree.

In my humble estimation, paying a fortune for a work of art, never for the benefit of the artist, who in all likelihood starved to death a century or two before, is the ultimate expression of a dull and deadly selfishness.

Making Things of Mexico
On occasion Mexico has been made the goat. The effort to make it a monkey is something new.

Before Mexico attempts to pull chestnuts out of the fire for somebody, else it should recall that the United States has lots of fuel and can maintain a hot fire for a long time.

Somehow it still is difficult to vision Texas as again Mexican territory.

Invalid, of Course
No piece of legislation is valid until passed upon by the courts and chances are against it then.

As might have been expected, and having nothing to do with the intrinsic quality of the measure, the red light restriction that promised to purge San Francisco of its sins has been knocked galley west.

It is a poor city that aches to reform and that the courts just won't permit to be good!

Our Favorite Ditch
Uncle Sam is a kindly old gentleman who hates to be harsh with anybody.

Just the same he ought to forbid the Columbians to play along the bank of the Panama canal. Some of them might fall in and obstruct traffic.

Partially Masculine
A man who on the stage takes a feminine role, not as a joke but as a serious performance, ought to have a good salary.

The realization that every normal male looks on him with contempt and disgust is not to be endured for a trifle.

Discouraging Drug Habits
Recently a peddler of morphine was arrested with several hundred dollars' worth of the drug on his person.

These degenerates are worse than any other plague, but it is useless merely to catch one and inflict a nominal fine. Hanging would be too good for him, but in the absence of means of inflicting this a term of imprisonment never less than fifty years would hit the spot.

Flying Over the Sea
Prediction is made that passenger vessels will be flying across the Atlantic in the near future, and there is no reason to doubt it, but complications will follow.

Who will own the air then?

Marriage as a Diversion
Two persons recently were in court seeking a divorce. It transpired that the husband was a brutal sort of a ruffian and that he had been married four times.

No man should be allowed to marry four times. If three wives have died on his hands it is evidence enough that he is a pestilence, and if they have fled his bread and board card proof that he is not fit to live with.

Kitchen Waste
The secretary of agriculture says that American housewives waste $600,000,000 a year in the kitchen.

With all respect for him and his set of performing statistics, I do not believe it. The ordinary housewife is careful either from inclination or because she has to be. She must buy on a small allowance, and when the family has extracted all available calories from the food on hand there is not much left for the chickens.

The secretary ought to take a few of his ciphers and switch them to some table where they wouldn't start an argument.

Aridity
The District of Columbia is to be bone dry.

Will the eagerness to be sent to Washington remain as great as ever among budding statesmen?

If I Were Twenty-One Again

(Condensed from "If I Were Twenty-one," by William Maxwell, in Collier's Weekly for March 16.)

I would not try to be a business specialist.

I'd keep as far away as possible from the engineering schools.

I should try to train myself to be a common-sense business executive.

I think I should first have gone to college. I would not take my college course too seriously; at least I'd not take my degree very seriously.

In college I would be neither a sport nor a grind.

I'd rather be business manager of the football team than the half back who made the winning touchdown against Yale.

I would not seek a salaried position of any sort until I was twenty-five.

I would become a salesman or a canvasser on a commission basis.

I should keep my independence until I was twenty-one. Then if I were willing to work for another man at a stipulated salary, I should at least be able to feel that my decision had not been made without some conception of what I could accomplish when unaided by that man's capital and business standing.

If I couldn't afford a law course at a state university which has a good short course in law, I should get a clerkship in a law office with the privilege of using the library for purposes of study. If I lived in a large city and had the opportunity to attend a night law school, I should do so.

I should do a great deal of reading. I should read many books. I should read the standard novels to get a good way of expressing my thoughts. I should study the great philosophers, but with the temper of an iconoclast. The study of philosophy is a wonderful stimulus to the intellect, but must be undertaken with a mind alert to fallacy.

Read! I cannot too strongly recommend good reading. Six hours each week of serious reading is not much, but it may mean the difference between a $20,000-a-year executive and a $25 clerk. Read! Learn to think with—and against—the deep thinkers of the world.

BUILDERS OF HOMES
VIE WITH SALT LAKE
IN LA HABRA ACTIVITY

LA HABRA, Mar. 16.—To desire to build, yet to be advised by a railroad company not to do so because the property might be on the right of way sought by railway builders is a condition obtaining in the southeast section of this city.

This state of affairs illustrates most strikingly the great activity that has been manifest this winter in all lines of development, particularly home building.

M. A. Stearnman was the man who desired to build in the southeast section. In fact he had started his house when he was informed that his property might be wanted as part of the Salt Lake right of way. All building in that section is being held up, pending the railroad's decision as to what land it will take up.

The number of bungalows erected this winter, despite rains, has been large. Many have been built for use by the owners themselves, while others will be for rent.

The fourth packing house of the La Habra Citrus Association has been completed.

LUMBER MILL OWNERS
OPPOSING ONE-DAY-
REST-IN-SEVEN BILL

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 16.—Strong opposition to the one-day-rest in seven bill is being shown here by the lumber mill owners of Tuolumne county, who complain that the mill and logging season is so short owing to early snowfall that the men are needed every day during the season of operations. The men are paid by the day.

VAGRANCY PROBLEM IS SOURCE OF WORRY TO
L. A. POLICE JUDGE

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 16.—"What can we do?" was the question asked by Police Judge Richardson today when one more unfortunate wanderer repeated the familiar offer of "Give me two hours to get out of town in and you'll never see me again." Day after day men charged with vagrancy after wandering the streets unable to find work, repeat those words to the police judges.

"If we agree to the man's proposition," Judge Richardson went on, "we simply are adding him to the list of those who will have to steal a ride on a railroad to get out of town. He has done nothing wrong and there is no reason to keep him in jail. Still the people of the city must be protected and we cannot allow idle men to roam around at all hours of the night, no matter what the cause of their idleness."

"This man has a right to live in Los Angeles and I have no right to drive him away. It is a problem and I wish I could find the answer to it."

DARDANELLES FIASCO
TO GERMAN CUNNING

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 16.—Not a blunder but German cunning in learning of the British plans caused the failure of the British expedition against the Dardanelles, is the declaration of a Southern California man in close business and political touch with the entente powers. He declares that Kitchener planned the Dardanelles campaign down to the most minute detail and then bought the Turkish commanders of the forts. The commanders, at a price, promised to shoot over the British warships when the attack started. Then the Germans became suspicious and suddenly replaced the Turkish officers with German officers who shot to hit.

"Kitchener was no fool and if he had not had such an arrangement with the Turks he never would have permitted his ships and men to attack," the Californian declares.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—It was learned today that Secretary Daniels is seriously considering the immediate equipment of Puget Sound and Portsmouth Navy Yards to start building at least a part of the new submarines, without awaiting the opening of private bids next month.

LACY'S STABLES ARE TRADED TO BENJAMIN

Theodore Lacy, Sr., has traded his livery business, including horses, buggies and harness, at the corner of Fifth and Sycamore street, to J. A. Benjamin. In the trade Lacy receives a house and lot on Lacy street near Fruit street.

Lacy first started business in the structure now at Fifth and Sycamore when it stood on Fourth street, where the Rosemary now is. That was in 1884. In 1885 the building was moved to its present location and Lacy continued in business there for five years. In the twenty years thereafter Lacy was sheriff of this county for sixteen years and ran the business from that time to this.

UPTON SINCLAIR IN PASADENA BACKS NEW STORE TO CUT H. C. L.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 16.—Upton Sinclair, novelist, is backing a co-operative grocery and provision store just opened in Pasadena which has for its announced purpose the reduction of the high cost of living. Later other stores are to be established, notably in San Francisco, Fresno, officers of the organization declare.

The Pasadena store is selling goods at the market prices but the profits come back to the members, who for the most part are leading Socialists and labor unionists, in the form of dividends. When the chain of stores proposed is completed they will, as far as possible, furnish each other with stocks, each section shipping those things grown in its district. A part of the plan is to utilize vacant city lots to raise farm produce.

Addresses given by Miss Nelson on "Scenarior," by Miss Nealley on "Books," and by Miss Connor on "Advancing," were reported on by Misses Elizabeth Givens, Isabelle Anderson and Esther Van Hyning.

The meeting was the first of what will be an interesting and instructive series.

The Junior colleges of Fullerton, Anaheim and Santa Ana are anticipating a joint picnic at Orange County Park the last Saturday in March.

A WORLD AFLAME

The days grow shorter, the nights grow longer, the headstones thicken along the way
As life grows sadder but love grows stronger
For those who walk with us day by day
The tears come quicker, the laugh comes slower
The courage is lesser to do and dare,
And the tide of joy in the heart falls lower
And seldom covers the reefs of care,
But all true things in the world seem truer
And the better things of earth seem best;
And friends are dearer as friends grow fewer
And love is all as our sun dips west
Then let us clasp hands as we walk together
And let us speak softly in love-sweet tone,
For no man knows on the morrow whether
We will pass on or but one alone.

JOLLY BOX SOCIAL

Beautiful Elks Hall Dedicated
Last Night, Event Attended By Large Crowd

The first public entertainment in the new banquet hall of the remodeled Elks' building, which has just been completed, occurred yesterday evening, when a box social was given and very largely attended, those not present missing the "time of their lives."

The improvements were greatly admired and the Elks and their ladies are anticipating many pleasant affairs.

There were hosts of beautifully decorated boxes holding delectable lunches and these were ably auctioned off by Luke Schissler, who was the "whole show," and caused great amusement with his clever sallies. The boxes brought a neat sum, which will be used for drapings and furnishings.

Hot coffee was served with the lunches and pretty candy and punch booths were presided over by Misses Esther Fluor, Helene McNeill and Gertrude Potts. Miss McNeill was responsible for a number of clever signs to advertise their wares, which went like "hot cakes."

The dainty maidens who dispensed the delicious drinks were Misses Margaret Lyon, Christine Watson and Ardis Burns.

The rooms were attractively adorned with beautiful peach blossoms, which gave a spring-like effect and harmonized with the grey finishings and handsome furniture.

Music, cards and dancing pleasantly passed the evening.

FUTURE BIG MEN, WOMEN MUST COME FROM THE FARM

Eugene H. Grubb, Agricultural Expert, Talks to High School Students

"Agriculture is the foundation of every industry in the world—commercial, manufacturing, banking—and from the farm must come the future great men and women."

This was the message brought to 850 high school girls and boys yesterday afternoon in a talk on "Farming as a Vocation." Grubb addressed the students under the auspices of the register and through the co-operation of Principal Hammond of the high school.

Grubb is the most prominent potato

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing mis-statements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to accept "extracts" of cod livers thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil.

The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic.

Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest grade of real Norwegian cod liver oil, skillfully blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 16-18

expert in the world and is in the employ of the agricultural department of the Southern Pacific. His time is devoted largely to advising farmers on the culture of potatoes and other farm products. The register, believing that hundreds of lot owners in Santa Ana would be interested in information on methods of potato planting and growing followed by this eminent expert, arranged for a demonstration here. Rain Wednesday morning necessitated calling off the demonstration and the lecture to the high school students was substituted.

The students gave the speaker the very closest attention and were deeply interested in his talk on "Back to the Farm."

"Agriculture feeds the world," said the expert. "No country on earth will ever endure without the man with the hoe and the woman."

Big Men Come From Farm

"Eighty-five per cent of the great generals, attorneys, bankers and presidents of the United States have come from the farm. The best students of the world of the future say that the cities require the country boy—the boy from the farm—to take the place of leaders of finance. There are big opportunities for men and women to develop scientific methods for decreasing the waste of our food. Today over 50 per cent of the value of foods that are fed our livestock is lost. Fifty per cent or less is utilized. Some day some man or woman—possibly some man or woman here today—will determine how to breed our domestic animals and how to feed them so that 65 or 80 per cent of the food value will be used."

"Some time some one will learn something about soil nutrition and plant nutrition. We have no chair in America today of those sciences of how we can grow manifold what we today are producing from the soil. Little or nothing is known of plant bacteria. If someone of you young men or women will take up that study and learn how to feed an apple tree you will find something worth while. Trees and plants live just as you do, by eating and drinking. They eat, drink and breathe. They take up food out of the soil. They live by the same laws and live in the sun. Take the Spitzberg apple. It grows only one crop every year because it has not been fed and has not sufficient surplus to throw out a set of fruit spurs for the following year. If a scientist of poultry can breed poultry so as to increase the product from 200 to 300 eggs per year—there are many flocks today that produce over 200 eggs per annum—if some one would learn how to feed a Spitzberg tree as the man has the hen, he would be of great value."

Great Opportunities

"In the last forty years our wheat has receded from 28 bushels per acre to fourteen. Europe has gone from 13 to 40 bushels, and instead of our feeding the world we are at the mercy of other countries. That is an opportunity for you men and women to study, and to know what a field there is for you. We are importing butter, eggs and pork from China, New Zealand and Australia, just because everybody is going to cities to live. Such states as Iowa are losing 3 per cent of their farmers. What an opportunity for you, young men and women, who are not afraid to work with your hands to go to the farm and learn the science of soils and animal and plant life."

"What a wonderful field agriculture today offers with electric power and improved implements. It opens to women the greatest vocation in the world. Women are better dairymen than men are dairymen. Who ever heard of a woman caressing a milk cow with a milk stool because she switched her tail to brush a fly? Who ever heard of a woman cuffing a hen when she pecked her up while setting eggs under her? In all my investigation, no boy or man ever won a championship in butter or cheese making—always women, they are more neat and tidy and study more. Women are natural lovers of outdoor and plant life."

"I want to say for the girls and women of this country that they are an absolute asset of the farm. No one has ever written upon the beauties of agriculture and country life. One has to be old and gray to realize and see their sons and daughters grow up to maturity in health and dignity and intensity to know what country and farm life really are."

Mr. Grubb yesterday visited with his brother, W. L. Grubb, here for a time, and today left for the northern part of the state. His California home is at Princeton, where he has a valuable ranch property.

$10,000,000 IS SUM BEAN MEN COUNT UPON

With bean growers soaring in the air in their ideas as to the price they should have for the coming crop and the buyers trying hard to reach those heights, the growers and buyers are having an interesting time in contemplating the handling of the $10,000,000 or more that will come as returns from a crop that is not even yet planted.

The total value will probably be twice that of the average season in years gone by. This will be true especially if present quotations prevail until the crop is disposed of.

The Lima Bean Growers' Association of Southern California is turning down offers of $8.85 per hundred pounds for the future crop. It is understood that some independent growers in this immediate vicinity have refused $10 per hundred. It is predicted the high water mark in price has not yet been reached.

The coming crop is estimated at 1,200,000 sacks, of which amount one-third, or 400,000 sacks, are controlled by the association. The organization has sold a small percentage of its possible holdings at 8 cents or better per pound. It is not selling now.

Of the two-thirds of the production controlled by independent growers, it is estimated that one-third has been disposed of at a price averaging about 7 cents.

Those who have contracted their crop have suffered heavy losses, figuring from prices now ruling and prospective. Many an individual bean raiser has lost as high as $10,000 by contracting at prices prevailing in the early part of the game now going on to corral the crop.

Last season's crop is pretty well cleaned up, the holdings at this time being about 125,000 sacks against an average of 400,000.

Whatever the growers get this year above the average price will be just so much "velvet" for them. It will cost no more to produce and harvest than heretofore.

Prospects for a bumper crop were never better at this time of the year than right now. The land is in the very best of condition, and severe heat in the summer only will change the prospects.

KELP CUTTERS BUSY OFF LAGUNA COAST

Kelp-cutting operations off the Laguna coast have been in progress for the past three days, five craft belonging to a San Diego firm having gone into the kelp beds.

There are two kelp cutters, two rafts and a tugboat in the outfit.

It is stated that when the operations at Laguna are completed the outfit will proceed to Catalina Island.

AT INSPECTION CO. L SHOWS HIGH DEGREE EFFICIENCY

Army Officer Says It Is Finest Body of Men He Has Seen On Trip

That Company L was the finest body of men he has seen on his trip of inspection of California guardsmen was one of the many complimentary things said last night by Colonel Sladen of the Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A.

The colonel was here for the annual inspection. He was accompanied by Colonel Saltmarsh, recently elected colonel of the Seventh California Regiment, to which Company L of Santa Ana belongs.

Yesterday afternoon the inspector made a careful investigation into the condition of the property in charge of the company. Captain N. M. Holderman and First Lieutenant A. K. Ford assisted Quartermaster Yaeger in showing the property to the officers.

Sixty-five men and three officers were out for inspection last night. The percentage of attendance was unusually high, and indicates the splendid interest that the members are taking in the work of the company. Colonel Sladen knows military work from A to Z, and his instructions brought out every detail of company and squad drill. Following the inspection of arms, the company was put through close order and open work. All of the corporals and sergeants were put through their paces.

The visiting officers expressed surprise and gratification at the excellent showing made by the recruits. It was to be expected that the men who spent several months at the border would go through the paces without a stumble, but the officers were not prepared for the swing with which the new men stepped into their work.

Yesterday evening Colonel Sladen and Colonel Saltmarsh were guests at the Dragon of Captain Holderman, Lieutenants Ford and Swanner of Company L and S. A. Ralph of Orange.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE TEMPLE

A real surprise greeted patrons of the Temple last night. The realistic stage setting used by the Athlon Company in their production of "The Gambler and the Girl" received unstinted praise from all who saw it. The stage was dressed to represent a regular forest, in one of California's noted mountain districts. And they were real trees too. No makeshift or fake about it. "The Gambler and the Girl," proved to be an exceedingly clever comedy melodrama, with plenty of heart interest, and good wholesome comedy.

Effie Johnson as Bess Fairfax, the little mountain girl, gave a splendid performance of the part, and again demonstrated her ability as a clever little actress. Robert Athlon as Alec Fairfax, the big hearted brother, put his whole soul into the part, and gave a good rendition of the character. Clifford Lancaster as Ned, the colored handy man, succeeded in getting a big bunch of laughs, every time he opened his mouth, while Clayton Smyth, as Jack Mason, who is in love with Bess, looked and acted the part in a characteristic manner. It is one of the best shows of the kind that one could wish to see.

The five-reel feature "Back of the Moon," with Dorothy Dalton and Charles Ray, in the leads, is a stirring story of Wall street and the big money interests. The Triangle feature, "A Studio Romance," is a comedy with a dandy plot, brimful of funny situations. Same show tonight and tomorrow. Tonight is Ladies' night at the Temple, and a choice of any $10.00 ladies' pattern in Reinhaus' department store will be given away.—Adv.

West End

Some of the most wonderful forest scenes ever staged appear in the Vitaphone five-part Blue Ribbon Feature, "The Ximney and Nix," starring William Courtenay and Lucille Lo Stewart, which was directed by Ralph Ince and which is the attraction at the West End Theater on Saturday. This story, which is a screen adaptation of Ramsey Morris' well-known stage success of the same name, demands that the hero and heroine dash through the burning forest in an engine in order to save the souls in the town beyond.

Comedian to Film Hero

Edwin Stanley, the singing comedian and writer of humorous articles, is seen in support of Florence La Badie in "Divorce and the Daughter," the Pathe Gold Rooster play, produced by Thanhouser, which is to be shown at Cline's Theater. Stanley plays the hero in a thoroughly delightful manner. He was born in Chicago, and his early career was tempestuous. In New York he wrote a vaudeville act in which the team of Maud Muller and Edwin Stanley toured the Orpheum and Keith circuits for six years.

VOTERS PROBABLY TO HAVE CHANCE AT BILL TO POLL TAX ALIENS

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 16.—There is a good chance of the proposed constitutional amendment calling for a poll tax of $4 annually on every male alien in the state, being referred to the voters. Assemblyman Harris has withdrawn his motion for reconsideration of the vote by which the Senate passed the measure and it stands a good chance of being passed by the Senate.

HARBOR SITE IS INSPECTED BY NATIONAL MEN

Naval Committee Deeply Im- pressed With Possibilities Of County Harbor

Newport bay as the location of a submarine base—there isn't a ghost of a chance."

Such, in effect, was the statement of Congressman Keittner yesterday, at Anaheim, when the congressional party was entertained at luncheon by the enterprising people of the Mother Colony.

"I have never heard it even suggested in Washington," said the Congressman, "and the Helm report makes no reference to it. The report refers only to San Pedro and San Diego as possible sites for such a base."

NEWPORT BEACH, Mar. 16.—Brimming with pleasure at the royal welcome afforded them by the people of Orange county and consumed with real regret at being forced to leave so soon, Chairman L. P. Padgett of the Naval Affairs committee voiced the sentiment of all the members of the congressional party who visited here yesterday when he said: "You have received us with open arms, you have given us a real southern welcome and we shall hate to leave you."

After a trip through the northern end of the county the congressional party arrived at the Orange County Country Club about 2:30 in the afternoon where they were met by a local delegation of business men and taken for a trip about the harbor.

With the exception of Congressman Keittner, none of the members had ever visited this locality before and each one expressed surprise at the magnitude of the bay and its possibilities for development. Referring continually to the new government map of the bay showing the recently adopted harbor lines and asking pertinent questions concerning the soundings, character of the bottom and the area of the tidal prism, the distinguished visitors were interested observers throughout the entire trip. The plans for the building of the municipal jetty in particular interested the eastern members who realized the importance to the harbor by the successful completion of that project.

Side-Stepped Submarines Base
The various propositions were more or less garrulous when it came to generalities and when the conversation was abruptly brought to the subject of a submarine base, the visitors would occasionally inquire the distance to Santa Ana from the Country Club. They spoke freely of the need of the Pacific Coast for adequate protection and pledged themselves to work during the next session for the fortifying of our vast shore line, but how and where it was to be protected, was a subject that failed to get by the censor.

In speaking of the united stand of all parties in Washington at the present time Congressman Keittner said: "You would be surprised to find out how little importance politics is in Washington at the present time. Congress is made up of neither Republicans nor Democrats, but just Americans."

By way of explaining his point Mr. Keittner mentioned the case of the death of Representative Sullway of New Hampshire and Conroy of New York. Although Mr. Sullway was a Republican Speaker Clark wired Representative Hollis, Democrat, to have the Legislature, then in session, pass a bill which would make it possible for the election of a new Republican member to take his seat on the 16th.

In the matter of selecting a successor to Mr. Conroy, Democrat, who was elected from one of the Tammany districts of New York City, Republican Minority Leader Mann telegraphed Governor Whitman to use his influence to hasten the selection of the new Democratic member.

Pointed to the Past
A number of the congressmen commented regretfully upon the defeat of Colonel Sparkman of Florida at the last general election and of his consequent retirement from the chairmanship of the Rivers and Harbors committee.

The fertility and natural resources of Orange county as seen by the hasty trip through this section was apparent to every member of the party and when Mr. Keittner pointed out the old Santa Ana landing at Port Orange and told of its activity in the early days, many expressed the hope that those conditions would recur again in the near future, and that Orange county, as well as the government, would become fully alive to the latest possibilities for the development of a world harbor within its confines.

Owing to the peculiar eccentricities of a gasoline motor, particularly when a party of United States Congressmen are depending upon it to make connections with a San Diego train, the visitors reached the Country Club landing with barely enough time to make their train.

Departed With Regret
Each gentleman departed from this county with real regret and many expressed their intention of returning as soon as the strains of public business would warrant.

The local party who accompanied the representatives comprised Messrs. Linn L. Shaw, R. L. Bisby, J. C. Metzger, G. A. Edgar and B. E. Tarver of Santa Ana; E. E. French, R. L. Obarr, of Huntington Beach; J. H. Whitaker of Anaheim; D. M. Young, Leo Geopfer, L. H. Wallace, F. W. Beckwith, I. P. Greeley, Joseph Ferguson, R. M. Durkee, W. L. Jordan, Oscar Petzoldt and B. S. Norton of this city.

ROBERT ATHON, well known theatrical producer and actor, who assumed management of the Temple Theatre this week.

Robert Athlon, owner of the Athlon Theatre, assumed the active management of the Temple Theatre the fore part of this week. From a theatrical standpoint the coming of Mr. Athlon to Santa Ana means much. He was formerly stage director for Keith & Proctor at their Fifth Avenue house in New York City. His productions are recognized country-wide as among the best. They show the master hand of one familiar with his work. Mr. Athlon is also an actor of note, and is usually seen as leading man in his productions. Temple programs have had a change of life since Mr. Athlon assumed the lease of this popular theatre.

The Program

Not content with giving the public what is acknowledged to be one of the best picture services in the country, Mr. Athlon is offering his own Stock Company. This is the same company that played fifteen straight weeks at the Hippodrome theatre in San Francisco, forty-one weeks at the Hippodrome in Seattle, twelve weeks at the Bijou in Honolulu, seven weeks at the Columbia in Vancouver, B. C., eight weeks at the Hippodrome in Spokane, and seventy-two weeks at the Globe in Portland.

The Leading Lady

Associated with Mr. Athlon is Miss Effie Johnson, the little leading lady of the company. She has been identified with some of the best road attractions. Clifford Lancaster, who plays anything from emotional leads to characters, is one of the actors who can make good in any line. Clayton Smyth, the juvenile man, has a stage presence and appearance that commands admiration. Athlon productions are all new, and above the usual.

VENTURA ROAD BUILDERS SEE COUNTY ROADS

Going to Spend $2,200,000 in Putting Their Section On Highway Map

Four supervisors and the county surveyor from Ventura county are today looking over paved roads of Orange county. They are under the guidance of Supervisor S. H. Finley, formerly chief engineer of the Orange county Highway Commission. This morning they took a trip over the Huntington Beach, Newport Beach and Tustin roads, and this afternoon they are seeing Santiago boulevard, Anaheim, Placentia and Garden Grove roads.

Ventura county has voted $2,200,000 in five per cent bonds, which is expected to bring a premium of $300,000. It is hoped to build 220 miles of paved roads.

FRECKLES

March Brings Out Unsightly Spots—How to Remove Easily

The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and winds have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind the prescription, othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength othine should remove them.

Get an ounce from your druggist and banish the freckles. Money back if it fails.—Advertisement.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

LIQUID MEASURE IN SALES OF SEEDS IS USED, FINES PAID

Los Angeles Dealers Say Custom Was Followed By Them, Guilt Technical

Yesterday afternoon representatives of Theodore Payne and Aggeler & Musser, two seed firms of Los Angeles, pleaded guilty to charges brought by County Sealer George McPhee, and each first paid a fine of $25.

The seed men were accused of selling orange seed of short measure. Both McPhee and they agreed that the sales were by liquid measure. McPhee contended that under the state rules orange seeds must be sold by dry measure, by which between sixteen and seventeen per cent increase in bulk is made.

The seed men declared that they bought the seed in Florida by the bushel measured by liquid measure, and used the same scale in their sales. They said that had their sales been by dry measure they would have added sixteen per cent to their prices. They admitted that since the rule requires dry measure, technically they were guilty, though they said custom was to use liquid measure, and on their pleas of guilty each was fined $25.

Counting Himself Lucky

Undoubtedly V. Koehler, barkeeper of Anaheim, is counting himself lucky. Three weeks ago he was accused of selling liquor to three minor boys of Orange. The case was in Justice Cox's court. Since Justice Cox on a number of occasions had said that he would accord the same treatment to any person convicted of violating the liquor laws as he accorded a Mexican blind-pigger, it is probable that Koehler had visions of a few weeks in jail. However, Justice Cox was called to Los Angeles as a witness in a bigamy case that was on trial there this week, and while Cox was gone Justice Geopner of Newport beach sat in Cox's court. Koehler came into court, pleaded guilty, and Justice Geopner fined him $25.

B. H. Blancher, a barber, today swore to a complaint charging William Hastings, Jr., with giving him a worthless $5 check. The check was drawn on the California National Bank of Santa Ana, and was dated March 13.

COLLINS DEFEAT IN GOLF PLAY SURPRISE

The third day's play in the seventh annual invitational golf tournament of the Los Angeles Country Club is in progress today.

After Crane Gartz had won in the first round from Lee Collins, the Orange County Country Club gross-score man of the qualifying round, Dr. Fredricks of the Los Angeles club won his match from Gartz in the second round of the tourney.

The Altadena man's defeat of Collins came as a surprise, as the Orange County club golfer had been picked as winner of the tournament.

Following are the results of matches in which Orange County Country Club men participated: Crane Gartz defeated Lee Collins, 1 up in the first round of the first flight and A. C. Twist defeated Thomas McCall, 1 up, 19 holes.

In the second round of the first flight R. D. Skelly defeated A. C. Twist, 4 and 3.

In the first round of the defeated sixteen of the first flight, Lee Collins defeated E. H. Bagby, 1 up.

In the first round of the second flight Dr. Holladay beat F. B. Browning, 1 up.

In the first round of the third flight, W. K. Parkinson won from S. P. Hunt, 1 up.

In the first round of the fifth flight, Rev. Lloyd Darsie beat R. E. Reid, 1 up.

Dyed-in-the-Wool Goodness

Quality maintenance is a thing that appeals to the man of taste with greater impact than price inducements. But when you can get a combination of the two you have merchandise that needs no selling argument but the showing.

Kahn Made-to-Measure Clothes

$25 to $50

depend first on quality. Market conditions that have shaken the goodness out of feebler trees than the House of Kahn find these modish, all wool, fast-dyed apparel leaders staunch and solidly excellent year after year. And if you pay more for a Kahn garment than for the common run of clothes you can count on a greater advance in quality than in price. This store is the local Kahn dealer.

What the Merchants
 Have to Offer You

TWO SURVEYS ALREADY MADE FOR THE P. E.

One Plan to Have Road Come
 In On Sixth, Other
 100 Yards South

The Tustin committee working on a proposal for the extension of an electric car line to Tustin is co-operating with the Pacific Electric Company, which is now seriously considering making the extension.

Two surveys have been made, one coming into Tustin at Sixth street and the other 100 yards south.

The plan seems to be to meet the Southern Pacific railroad now used for shipping fruit, this railroad to be electrified also.

Of course the Tustin people would rather have the car line come to a more central place and nothing certain has been decided upon as yet, but the proposition is said to be in a more definite shape than ever before.

Ever since Santa Ana's line from Los Angeles was built the matter of an extension to Tustin has come up every now and then for discussion.

Since the jitneys began to run, nearly three years ago, the matter has been resting until now the Pacific Electric has begun to make a move in the matter.

The Tustin committee is hopeful of being able in the near future to report something definite to the people of this section.

TUSTIN TWELVE

The beautiful bungalow home of Mrs. Charles Sauers, which is one of the most complete in all appointments of all the pretty homes of Tustin, was the attractive meeting place of the Tustin Twelve last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sauers happened to have a friend who was taking out a peach tree which was in glorious bloom, the blossoms being unusually large and pink. Therefore three rooms adjoining looked like a spring bower of beauty in shades of pink.

Mrs. Graham of Santa Barbara, formerly Mrs. Ellis Smith of Tustin and Santa Ana, and the founder of the club, was an honored guest. The club was organized in 1912 and was composed of all of Tustin young married women. The club now has some Santa Ana members, owing to the fact that some have moved to Santa Ana, and others have been taken in to the membership.

Social chat, while fingers were busy with needlework, passed the time pleasantly. Vocal duets by Mrs. Chas. Johnson and Mrs. J. W. Sauers were much enjoyed.

The dining table was centered with a flower basket filled with feathery green and spicy white carnations, the handle finished with an airy tulle bow. St. Patrick's day green and shamrocks were the decorations used in the dining room and the guests were seated by place cards of shamrock. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. P. H. Bergquist in serving a delicious three-course collation; a salad course, ice cream and angel drops, and mints, all in green and white and shamrock shaped.

Ten of the members were present, Mrs. C. O. Artz, Mrs. Albert Fuller, Mrs. Bridgeford, Mrs. Sophia Finster, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Arthur Hofer, Mrs. J. S. House, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. G. W. Pollard, and the hostess. Guests of the club were Mrs. J. W. Sauers, Mrs. W. S. Suddaby, Mrs. P. H. Bergquist, and Mrs. Graham.

Kaffee Klatsch

The members of the High School German Club were entertained Tuesday afternoon at a Kaffee Klatsch at the home of Miss Lillian Martin in Tustin. Four young ladies of the party were principals in carrying out the idea of a German afternoon tea.

Pretty decorations of violets, and frezias were used. Plenty of amusement was furnished by the jolly German games played. A wienie bake was much enjoyed as well as buns, pickles, olives, salad and marshmallows.

Those present were Misses Helena Lieberman, Frances Stockebriand, Lavina Opp, Ruth Webber, Vivian Cox, Anita Preble, Irma Taylor, Katherine Walker and Mary Bess Leary; Messrs. Robertson, Bion Furrington, Willard Stark, Irvin Petz, Albert Thorman and Victor Burghofer.

Day Nursery Teas

Mrs. Alice Kiser was one of the hostesses at a Day Nursery tea on Wednesday at her pretty home on C street. The ladies present were busily engaged in dainty needlework and a pleasant social afternoon was spent by Mrs. John Kiser, Mrs. Allen Holford, Mrs. Clyde Deardorf, Miss Grace McCarthy, Mrs. Grant Holderman, Mrs. Fred Courrier failed to come on account of a sick little girl. A dainty tea was served.

Other hostesses at these teas during the past week were Mrs. Clarence Nisson, Mrs. H. E. Matthews, Mrs. Penlon Matthews, Mrs. Hugh Plumb and Mrs. Charles Bowman.

Eaton's Table Queen Bread is very popular.

TUSTIN BUDGET WILL BE PUBLISHED FRIDAY

Register Hopes to Enlarge Its Service for Thriving
 Section

The Tustin Saturday Budget of the Register will hereafter be published on Fridays.

The change was made to accommodate the advertisements of merchants of Tustin, and thereby enlarge the section as a whole. Tustin and Santa Ana are so closely joined, both geographically and socially, that the Register deems it incumbent upon itself to give our neighbor all the space possible. The circulation of the Register in Tustin has also grown to such an extent that more than seven families of every ten in Tustin take the Register daily.

It has been our policy to publish a Tustin Budget on both Wednesdays and Saturdays. The Wednesday program will be continued as heretofore, but the Saturday's section, much enlarged with the advertisements of Tustin merchants, will be issued on Fridays in the future. The Register hopes to be of increasing service to the Tustin section.

Tustin items should be telephoned to Miss Florence Stone as early as possible each week. Copy for the Friday section should be in her hands not later than Thursday noon.

Suggestions as to ways and means of making the Tustin page more useful to the Tustin people will be thankfully received.

OLD STORE IS MADE MORE ATTRACTIVE

Structure Been Overhauled
 and Presents Neat
 Appearance

The store at the corner of Main and D streets, recently purchased by E. A. Ward & Co., is gradually being overhauled and renewed, and is now presenting a very neat appearance on the inside.

Trees have been cut away and the grounds changed. The little bay window house on the side is being torn down and taken away.

The beautiful new bungalow being built by Wm. Hughes, on the lot recently purchased from N. S. Long, is nearing completion.

Plans are under consideration for a handsome new home to be built by W. S. Suddaby on the lot just purchased from W. D. Bowman, on First street.

COREOPSIS CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. ANNA SWARTZ

TUSTIN, Mar. 14.—The regular meeting of the Coreopsis Club was held last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ann Swartz at her home on Laguna avenue.

Pretty green decorations were all suggestive of St. Patrick's day. Each lady was well supplied with fancy work and needle work and social chat occupied the afternoon. A pleasant feature was Hawaiian songs by Miss Ruth Davis, the granddaughter of the hostess. Miss Davis accompanied herself on the mandolin.

When the guests were invited to the dining room they were seated at a pretty table decorated in feathery green. Festoons of fern were effectively strung from the chandelier to each corner of the table. Place cards were green hats, pipes and shamrocks. Tiny green baskets, shamrock shaped, were filled with after dinner mints, sandwiches, salt, olives and St. Patrick's cake were served.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Wade Davis and Miss Ruth Davis of Ramona Park, Mrs. George Prather, Jr., Mrs. Richard Morton and mother, Mrs. Carmichael. Members present were Mrs. E. E. Smith, Mrs. Chas. Lambert, Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. Penlon Matthews, Mrs. H. E. Matthews, Mrs. Claud Norton, Mrs. Floyd Turner, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Alton Alderman and Mrs. Hattie Swartz.

TUSTIN MISSES GIVE MERRY SOCIAL HOP

TUSTIN, Mar. 14.—Tustin K. P. hall was the scene of a merry round of music and dancing last Friday night. The dance was given by Misses Mabel Rhlei, Stella Jessup and Ethel Monroe. Orange day decorations made the old hall look gay and festive, and there were over sixty persons present. It was a company of congenial friends who love the dance.

The music was furnished by Mrs. Floyd Turner on the piano and Ray Dysart on the traps.

Delicious orange and sunshine cake was served with orangeade.

Sauers & Bergquist are featuring quality goods, service and free delivery in their advertisement.

SPLENDID WORK IS BEING DONE IN WORK SHOP

School P.-T. A. Issues a Call
 For Saving of Surplus Papers

Visitors to the manual training department will find much of interest in the numerous articles of woodwork in various stages of construction. Revolving and stationary bookcases, small tables, some with drawers and some without, and library tables more complicated, bread boards and music racks are all being constructed along cabinet-making style. Each boy is given the opportunity to make something that he really wants for himself and not what is suggested to him by his teacher. These articles are made of Oregon pine, surfaced and finished by the pupil himself. If any boy has a particular talent in this direction he will find it out in this study.

A letter has been sent to the parents to the effect that if there are any waste papers or magazines to be burned or thrown away, in small amounts or large, where individuals do not care to handle them, that they be sent to the schoolhouse. These papers will be sold and the proceeds used to add to the playground equipment from time to time. Other playgrounds are being visited by the principal in order to find out the features which are of the greatest value.

One of the most important departments of the school is that of Domestic Science. Miss Clara Enderle is teacher of cooking and Mrs. Ethel Slusser of sewing. The girls are taking great interest in both.

The principal of the school invites the patrons and friends of the school to visit them at any time and they can be shown some of the work that is being done.

The principal's office in the Tustin Grammar school building, which has heretofore been without a carpet or rug of any kind, on the floor, is now fitted up with a new rug. At a recent Parent-Teacher Association meeting, held in the evening when both fathers and mothers were present, Mr. Overton started a fund, by himself giving $1 to purchase a floor covering for the office. The hat was passed around and a neat sum was contributed to be used for that purpose. Principal Beswick had finished a small mission table for the office and a handsome brass jardiniere has been added to the table. A lovely growing fern has been purchased and placed in the jardiniere, making a very attractive ornament. Altogether, the room has a much more inviting look.

See the advertisement of the Tustin Mercantile Company for a list of good things to eat tomorrow and Sunday.

GOING TO DISCUSS ONE-MAN ROAD BOSS

The monthly meeting of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce will be held on the fourth Tuesday evening of the month, March 27. It is desirable that a representative number of Tustin people be present to discuss the matter of a one-man road supervision.

The regular monthly meeting of the Associated Chambers will be held on the next evening, March 28, when this matter will come up for consideration and delegates to the Associated Chambers meeting should have instructions as to the wishes of the Tustin people in this matter.

It is hoped that the Tustin people will come out to the meeting on the 27th and talk the matter over.

FINE FOR RHEUMATISM!

Musterole Loosens Up Those Stiff Joints—Drives Out Pain

You'll know why thousands use Musterole once you experience the glad relief it gives.

Get a jar at once from the nearest drug store. It is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Brings ease and comfort while it is being rubbed on!

Musterole is recommended by many doctors and nurses. Millions of jars are used annually for bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

ALL-DAY MEETING IS TO BE HELD MAR. 29

The Tustin Presbyterian Missionary Society will hold an all-day meeting on the fifth Thursday of the month, March 29, at the church. The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning. Everybody invited and each one requested to bring a lunch. Tea and coffee will be served hot.

All business will be attended to in the morning. Reports will be given from the annual Presbyterian meeting.

The afternoon will be given over to the topic "Japan." Mrs. Sherman Stevens will take charge of the church decorations.

RAIN THOUGH BUT LIGHT, BENEFICIAL

The gentle, soaking rain on Wednesday morning was very welcome to the barley and bean growers, and all the ranchers who have plowing to do. It did not rain long enough to injure the apricot blossoms, especially as it was followed by a good wind to dry them off. However, the trees are so laden with blossoms that it would be good to have some drop off. If 50 per cent of the blossoms were to drop, there would be a fine crop left.

CHOIR PARTY

The members of the Presbyterian choir were enjoyably entertained last Monday night by Miss Grace Hight, one of their number. It was a farewell occasion for Milton Bailey, who returns soon to a position in Montana.

The Tustin Cyclery is expert in the repair of motorcycles.

'PUEBLOS' TOPIC OF LECTURER AT TUSTIN

TUSTIN, Mar. 14.—A good sized audience attended the stereopticon lecture given by Dr. George LaMont Cole last Friday night at the Tustin school auditorium on "The Pueblos." It was an interesting lecture giving the history of these strange people, the country in which they live, their strange habits, life, dress, manners and customs, and their elaborate and impressive religious ceremonies. They were America's first farmers and irrigators, a peaceful, home-loving, thrifty people who furnish us with a living, moving exposition of the way prehistoric Americans lived ages before the white man set foot on the continent. It is surprising to know how many of those people are now living in New Mexico and Arizona.

The lecture reveals the development of culture and the laws and religions of early man.

SEAL BEACH PREPARES FOR SNOWBALL DANCE

SEAL BEACH, Mar. 16.—A snowball dance—which certainly sounds like a novelty for Southern California—is in course of preparation at Seal Beach. It will be held March 27 in the Seal Beach dancing pavilion and will be under the auspices of the Seal Beach Chamber of Commerce.

The scheme of the committee in charge of the affair is to have everything as different from the usual "hum-drum" dance as possible. The pavilion will be decorated in imitation of an arctic glacier with a shower of snow flakes constantly above everyone's head. Colored lights in imitation of the aurora borealis will constantly play dreamily about the glistening scenes, at times flashing in brilliancy, and then fading away to duller hues. Armfuls of snowballs will be given to every guest. These will be used in the dance numbers entitled, "Battle of the Snowballs." Other special features will be "The Storm" one-step, "The Dance of the Colored Snow Flakes," "The Snow Drift Slide," etc.

DIRECTOIRE AND PEGTOP GOWNS COMING BACK

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, Feb. 18 (by mail).—The directoire gown has come back. It is in Paris today. Soon it will be in New York and a little later it probably will be all over the United States.

The new directoire, however, the Paris designers decree, may be used only for dinner and evening gowns. For the street it is taboo and must give way to "pegtops."

American buyers who have braved the ocean voyage to Paris are paying hard American dollars here today for 1917 dress models. War permitting, the buyers and models will soon be back in the United States dictating what is proper for American women folks to wear.

Yankee Buyers Busy
When the United States correspondent dropped in at a famous Paris show room today, the American buyers, the directoire, pegtops and many other new creations were there. It will hardly be such a lavish display of feminine ankle on American streets this spring and summer. Nevertheless, the new frocks will hang about seven inches from terra firma. An expert might describe waist-line or draped-in folds or loops over the hips and tapering to a narrow skirt at the bottom. The "peg" effect is arranged by the fullness at the top buttoning into a pleat or two at the hem.

A red cloth short coat with a gray "peg" skirt is perfectly proper for the future. Red trimmed buttons may hold the side fullness to the narrow width at the bottom. Many of the new models have coats and skirts of various and different colors. Knitted silk jersey is a popular material, the designers say. Polka dotted foulards are also extremely popular and tussors are not far behind in the running. Red, pink and crystal beads will be extensively used for trimming.

The new ball gowns, evening and dinner gowns will sweep clean this year—that is if the wearers are not careful to hold them off the floor. Again, an expert might say of the new evening directiores: the skirt is long and narrow. It splits three or four inches up the bias seam.

Reminiscent
Mannequins wearing these before the American buyers today seemed to have stepped out of the fashion books of five years ago. The skirt drapes the floor an inch all-around and trains out behind. Jet crystals and fine laces are the newest thing in trimming. The most popular of the new directoire models is declared by the Americans to be that of black satin with blue and black crystal fringe hanging panel-like at the side of the knees.

BRITISHERS STRUGGLE WITH YANKEE SLANG

LONDON, Mar. 16. (By Mail).—American slang in England today is a fearful and wonderful thing. The Britishers struggle with it valiantly, as witness this squib in one newspaper just after the announcement of the German submarine decree:

"Among those seen at the steamship booking office was Mr. Alex Q. Jones of Detroit. He was not indignant in his breezy American way."

"Alex Q. Jones is taking passage for little old 'etna', he declared, 'and if the Germans think they can frighten him off the big drink by their method they have taken a long slide into the wrong guess shop. Maybe President Wilson doesn't think it worth while to protect Alex Q. Jones but the Yankee Doodle boys in Congress will let Germany know where she alichts and Alex Q. Jones will jolly well take his chances.'"

The paragrapher of the Pall Mall Gazette did a little better in discussing what he said was recent news from the U. S.

"They are now calling Count von Bernstorff a Spanish athlete," he said. "To understand this you must know that the very latest American slang is 'throwing the bull.' Wherefore one who throws the bull would be a Spanish athlete."

WHAT CALIFORNIA FOLKS SAY.

Pasadena, Cal.—"I want to extend to you my heartfelt thanks for the benefits derived from the use of your medicines, also for the kind and good advice obtained. I am a proud mother. I had been a great sufferer; three times I was given up to die—the last time being four months ago. I doctored with several doctors but obtained no relief. Was told that an operation would effect a cure, so I submitted to one, but this proved, like all the medicines I had taken—not beneficial. I obtained, and started at once taking 'Favorite Prescription.'"

"Four months ago the doctors and nurse said it would be a year or more before I would be able to do my housework, and, of course, I thought so myself as I was not able to walk across the floor for several weeks. I am now able to do all my housework and to care for my children and I do not feel as though I could ever thank you enough for the benefits I have received.—MRS. MABELLE KIPP, 184 South Pasadena Ave.

The New Discovery for Kidneys, Rheumatism and Backache.

Send 10 cents with name of this paper to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., for a large sample package of "An-uric." It will convince any one suffering from kidney, bladder, backache, that it is many times more active than lithia, and dissolves uric acid in the system, as hot water melts sugar; besides being absolutely harmless, it preserves the kidneys in a healthy state by thoroughly cleansing them. It clears the heart valves and effects the degeneration of blood-vessels and regulates blood pressure.

WHITMAN DOOMS BOXING IN N. Y.

BY H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, March 11.—Any idea anyone might have had that boxing wasn't on its last legs and tottering unsteadily to its corner for the final round should be thoroughly dissipated by Governor Whitman's action in New York when he refused to permit Les Darcy appear in public bouts.

Whether it will seep into other states and knock the game clear out the ring is something else and remains for time to tell.

Whitman was severely criticised in many quarters when he took his stand against Darcy, while in other spots he was highly commended.

Critics declared he should not have shown discrimination against Darcy, pointing out that Freddie Welsh, Tom Cowler, Ted Lewis and others are allowed to box without interference. They are just as much at fault as is Darcy, for they are Englishmen, whereas Darcy is an Australian, and of Irish descent.

Whitman's action seems to have been taken because Darcy had neglected his duty to come to America and get some easy money. The spectacle of a foreigner coming here and separating New Yorkers from their cash because they were easy marks evidently didn't appeal to the governor. The other English boxers already were in this country when war was declared.

Darcy made a frightful mistake when he refused to talk business with Mike Gibbons and promoters from the Middle West. Then, when he listened to bad advice and separated himself from Tim O'Sullivan he made another bad step. Each of these actions caused adverse comment and the people began to kick.

Governor Whitman's attention naturally was called to what was going on. He couldn't have helped seeing it if he read the newspapers. Darcy wasn't complimented by any means in the things said about him. If Governor Whitman got the wrong impression it's his own fault.

The money grabbers among the boxers are fast choking the wind out of the goose that lays the golden egg. It wouldn't be at all surprising if every boxing law in the country was wiped off the books within two or three years.

STIR PATRIOTISM IS PLAN OF TAFT

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Mar. 16.—Ex-President William Howard Taft is busy at his home here today outlining his speeches he will deliver on his "Paul Revere" ride through the South and West beginning next Wednesday to awaken the spirit of preparedness and patriotism in the people of those sections.

Dr. Taft will leave here the first of the week and go to Richmond, Va., for his first speech Wednesday night. He will speak in Greensboro, N. C., March 22; Atlanta, March 23; Birmingham, March 24; Nashville, March 25; Memphis, March 26, and in the evening at Little Rock, Ark.; Dallas, March 27; Oklahoma City, March 28 and 29. Dr. Taft will be in Chicago March 30 and back here April 1.

"With the greatest reluctance," said Dr. Taft today, "I have come to the conclusion that we need compulsory military training. We are now looking over the brink of hostilities with some of the belligerents in this war. We could not have better proof of the need of a body of trained men in this country at once."

CRAWFORD QUILTS
WAXAHACHIE, Tex., Mar. 15.—The passing of Wahoe Sam Crawford, for many years one of the big figures in baseball, was officially confirmed today by Manager Jennings of the Tigers. Hughey announced positively Sam would not be a regular during 1917. Present plans provide for the shifting of Cobb to right field and the playing of Heilman in center.

HOW U. S. WOMEN TRADE COMMISSIONERS WILL GET HOME IS PUZZLE

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Just before the German submarine zone order went into effect, Mrs. Harriet M. Johnston and Mrs. L. W. Neely of Munice, Ind., sailed as American Trade Commissioners to China to perfect financial connections and trade bases in that republic for American trade. Their work today is practically completed; but how they are going to get back home is a question, unless they care to brave the U-boat danger zone. No direct word from the men and women members of the commission as to their plans has been received. Other members of the party are: General Julian S. Carr, Durham, S. C.; Ernesto P. Neal of Kansas City, Julius O. Frank, of Milwaukee, and J. S. Lawson and Fred Landeck of Wisconsin.

WOOD'S ARM
NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 15.—Joe Wood, the Indians' $15,000 gamble, won't be in shape to pitch when the season opens. He admitted today his costly arm has developed a kink—a sort of grating in the shoulder. Doctors are working on Joe.

MY TIRED FEET ACHE FOR "TIZ"

Let Your Sore, Swollen, Aching Feet Spread Out in a Bath of "Tiz"

—Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Advertisement.
